WHEREAS, The Nursing care of the ill has served humanity from the dawn of time; and,

WHEREAS, It is meet and proper that nursing should be encouraged among the youth of this State; and,

WHEREAS, The Future Nurses of America, an organization of young men and women of high school age, has since the 1950's made tremendous contributions to the care of the ill, the sick and the bedridden by contributing their efforts in hospitals, nursing homes, rest homes, and schools; and,

WHEREAS, The people of South Dakota deeply appreciate these splendid efforts of the Future Nurses of America and wish to express their thanks:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of April 9, through April 14, 1973, as and urge all citizens of South Dakota to show their appreciation to the Future Nurses of America for their great contributions and to urge all interested youth to join and to participate in the activities of the Future Nurses of America.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 21st day of February, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Three.

Richard F. Kneip

RICHARD F. KNEIP, GOVERNOR
